LC calling for MTD/BL/NNSW/CPBL	Clauses in MTD/BL/NNSW/CPBL	Discrepancy	Release of the goods *(may be released)
Straight (Consigned to)	The goods may be released without presentation of at least one original bill of lading, if issued in straight form.	NO	YES*
Negotiable (To order)	The goods may be released without presentation of at least one original bill of lading, even if issued in negotiable form.	YES	YES*
Negotiable (To order)	The goods may be released without presentation of at least one original bill of lading, even if issued in negotiable form with a text as follow: "The Carrier will require surrender of the original bill of lading for the release of the cargo."	NO	NO
Negotiable (To order)	The goods may be released without presentation of at least one original bill of lading, if issued in straight form.	NO	NO

- MTD: Multimodal Transport Document
- BL: Bill of Lading
- NNSW: Non-Negotiable Sea Waybill. This document can be issued only in straight form.
- CPBL: Charter Party Bill of Lading

Clauses in Bills of Lading Allowing for Release of Goods without Requiring Presentation of the Original

Elaborazione a cura di D. Del Sorbo – Copyright 2016 Studio Del Sorbo srl – Not to be reproduced or copied without consent of the author

- If the credit call for straight transport document, it would be discrepancy if the presented document is in negotiable form.
- If the credit call for negotiable transport document, it would be discrepancy if the presented document is in straight form.
- If the credit call for a negotiable transport document for a non-negotiable transport document (NON-NEGOTIABLE SEA WAYBILL/AWB/CMR/CIM/ INLAND WATERWAY TRANSPORT DOCUMENTS) the transport document could be issued in straight form without indicating "to order".

The ICC Banking Commission hasn't issued an official Opinion to regulate this issue. The majority of banks, however, now follow this principles.

Elaborazione a cura di D. Del Sorbo – Copyright 2016 Studio Del Sorbo srl – Not to be reproduced or copied without consent of the author